THE OFFICIAL ANNUAL REPORT OF BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOME AND FAMILY SERVICES

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The changing seasons offer opportunities to experience different aspects of life. "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven" (Eccl. 3:1) In The Seasons of God, Richard Blackaby describes the seasons this way: "Spring is the time of beginnings, exciting opportunities, and anticipation for the future. Seeds planted in this time will then take root and mature during summer's labor, producing a harvest in the fall, a reaping of our efforts. Then everything draws to a close in winter."

I am excited about the spring season that is upon BCHFS and what God desires to do through this ministry to serve children and families. We are committed to our mission of "providing Christ-centered services that protect, heal and restore." Over the past year we served more individuals than the previous year. The ministries of Pathways Counseling and Faith Adoptions have experienced growth in counseling sessions and home studies for adoptive parents. GraceHaven continues moving forward with a message of life and hope in Jesus Christ to mothers with unexpected pregnancies. Residential care at Angels' Cove and Baptist Children's Home Carmi Campus offer a supportive home environment to their residents. Even the spring season offers turbulent weather at times. The same is true for BCHFS. Cultural challenges offer opportunities to communicate the hope and life found in Jesus Christ. There are continued staffing needs in the development, maintenance and residential areas. Our investments suffered from the economic decline of 2022. The good news is that our God reigns. Despite some turbulence, He will continue to provide for all of our needs as we faithfully carry out His mission.

We are thankful for the Lord's provision in bringing new staff to BCHFS and supplying the material needs to serve our clients and residents. We are also thankful to you our generous churches and donors for your partnership in this ministry.

In Christ Alone,
Kevin Carrothers
Executive Director, BCHFS
